

1. Unsolicited phone calls were a serious intrusion into my privacy. Politely, the best I can say is that they were a nuisance and disruption of my precious time at home.
2. It was Indiana's law that eliminated the majority of unsolicited and unwanted phone calls to my home.
3. The FCC should not implement any proposal that will lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
4. The scoundrels that wish to bombard us with unsolicited calls still can use the U.S. Mail for their purposes.
5. I hope the FCC will NOT cave in to the pressure of big business interests. It is time for the FCC to stand up and protect the privacy of U.S. citizens. It's time for you to make us proud!

Thank you for your time,    Alfred Nyby
